-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

1. Claims 1-4, 17-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(e) as being unpatentable over Mura-Smith (US 6,127,945).

As to claim 1, Mura-Smith teaches a method of presenting location data representing a mobile phone's current approximate location (figure 8 A/B and their descriptions) comprising:

determining the current position of the mobile phone (Position determine unit);

looking up locations within a predetermined distance from the current position of the mobile phone (the user selects or enters the geographic coordinate of all the restaurants within a specific area into the portable unit before venture into the geographic area); and displaying a location icon representing a location within the predetermined distance to the current position of the mobile phone (figure 8b and col.5, lines 31-47).

As to claim 2, Mura-Smith teaches the method of claim 1 further comprising waiting a predetermined period before re-determining the current position of the mobile phone (col.7, lines 30-39).

As to claim 3, Mura-Smith teaches the method of claim 2 further comprising prompting the user to input the predetermined period (col.7, line 40-col.8, line 27).

As to claim 4, Mura-Smith teaches the method of claim 3 further comprising prompting the user to input the predetermined distance from the current position of the mobile phone (col.7, line 40-col.8, line 27).

As to claim 8, Mura-Smith teaches the method of claim 1 further comprising displaying primary data pertaining to the location icon including a distance and heading measurement, wherein the primary data is displayed along with the location icon (figure 8B).

As to claim 17, the claim is a software program of claim 1; therefore, the claim is interpreted and rejected as set forth as claim 1.

As to claim 18, the claim is a software program of claim 2; therefore, the claim is interpreted and rejected as set forth as claim 2.

As to claim 19, the claim is a software program of claim 3; therefore, the claim is interpreted and rejected as set forth as claim 3.

As to claim 20, the claim is a software program of claim 4; therefore, the claim is interpreted and rejected as set forth as claim 4.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 10-14, 26-30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Mura-Smith in view of Syrbe (US 2006/0148488).

As to claim 10-14, Mura-Smith teaches the method of claim 1, Mura-Smith fails to teach determining the current position of the mobile phone utilizes GPS, an Enhanced Observed Time Differential (E-OTD) system, a Time Of Arrival (TOA) system, a cell of original system within the mobile phone and providing the location icon to a network server such that it can be accessed by other mobile phone users. Syrbe teaches determining the current position of the mobile phone utilizes GPS, an Enhanced Observed Time Differential (E-OTD) system, a Time Of Arrival (TOA) system, a cell of original system within the mobile phone and providing the location icon to a network server such that it can be accessed by other mobile phone users (paragraph 057, 063). Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the teaching of Syrbe into the system of Mura-Smith in order to determine the location of the mobile device using different methods.

As to claims 26-30, the claims are the computer software program of claims 11-14; therefore, the claims are interpreted and rejected as set forth as claims 11-14.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 5-7, 9, 15, 16, 21-25, 31, 32 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

As to claims 5-7, 9, 15, 16, 21-25, 31, 32, the teaching of prior arts fails to teach further recited limitations of these claims.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

A. Fukui et al (US 2002/0115437) teaches information providing system, registration terminal, and portable terminal.
